THERE ARE NO PRODUCTS LIKE THE "MADE AT HOME"
LET'S BUY AND BOOST EM, WHERE ERE WE MAY ROAM.

ALL TOGETHER

THAT wonderful song "Home Sweet Home" hits all of us "where we live"—and the "Buy and Boost Home Products" refrain makes a fitting encore. The inborn love of a man for his home city should be demonstrated at home. This is illustrated when two men, scarcely having a speaking acquaintance, meet in a distant land. Because of this bond they are delighted to see each other, and their conversation revolves around the "Home Town" and the people "back home."

Foster this germ at home by buying home-made goods. Don't wait until you get a thousand miles away in a strange land to show your appreciation. Do it today. Your enterprising townsmen, who located their plants here, who invested their capital here, who spend their money here, are deserving of your individual support. As a loyal citizen, as a broad-minded business man you will make it a practice to "Buy and Boost Home Products" and to influence your friends, relatives and acquaintances to do the same.
